

Talk Time

This week, Year 5's Big Write will be to write a mysterious setting description in the style of Philip Pullman's book, Clockwork. The children will then imagine going inside the spooky building and finding a beautiful, positive environment. In preparation, it would be great if you could discuss exciting vocabulary, metaphors and similes that your child could use in their writing. They could also consider appropriate fronted adverbials.

Talk Time

This week, Year 5's Big Write will be to write a mysterious setting description in the style of Philip Pullman's book, Clockwork. The children will then imagine going inside the spooky building and finding a beautiful, positive environment. In preparation, it would be great if you could discuss exciting vocabulary, metaphors and similes that your child could use in their writing. They could also consider appropriate fronted adverbials.

