

Big Write – Titanic 22/3/18

Pretend to be a first class passenger on the Titanic and encourage your child to talk about

- their feelings as they board
- their sense of excitement
- the order of the Titanic story until it hit the ice berg
- who or where they are heading
- descriptive vocabulary that relates to the facilities

We will be writing a letter from the Titanic back to our parents, who waved us off from the docks.