

Big Write - Thursday 8th March

Moody Margaret has broken into Horrid Henry's Clubhouse and is hiding inside ready to scare him. When Henry and his friends arrive, Moody Margaret begins her plan. Without being seen she moves the children's possessions around the room, whilst making ghostly noises. Horrid Henry is convinced that his Clubhouse is haunted. Finally, Henry spies Moody Margaret out of the corner of his eye and she is caught.

Please discuss with your child argument Horrid Henry and Moody Margaret have once she has been discovered.

e.g. "What do you think you are doing in my clubhouse," yelled Henry shaking his fist.

Next consider what Horrid might do next to either protect his Clubhouse or get his own back.